git commit -m "No leaks" Full-Stack Developer | Building AI-powered apps | React • Next.js • Node.js | Turning ideas into reality | Building the future | Open for Freelancing | Feel free to reach out on any media

Alipurduar-I, West Bengal, India

Summary

Full Stack Web Developer | FounderI turn ideas into visuals — whether that's a brand reel, a UI mockup, or a content strategy that actually converts.Currently building CollabX — a creative collaboration platform for student founders and content creators across India. What I do:• Video editing & Reels production (Premiere Pro, After Effects, VN, CapCut)• Web UI design with clean, user-first layouts• Fast & accurate content writing, data entry, and documentation• Social media content strategy for brands & creators Experience so far:• Founder — rva.creates (3+ years, 100+ projects)• Video Editor — SkillStreet & AiMargdarshak • Social Media Team — EMAUR What makes me different:I combine creative instinct with technical execution. I don't just edit videos — I craft narratives. I don't just design pages — I design experiences. Based in Alipurduar, West Bengal | Open to remote, hybrid & freelance work worldwide Portfolio: <https://ayushapd.dpdns.org>
